

Sicily and beyond private yacht charters, turn a vision into a reality

Marina Di Ragusa

The modern marina, has great facilities

A long sandy beachfront with blue flag, known as Lungomare Mediterraneo.

Cycling, with extra-large designated cycle lanes along the coast, bicycles are available to hire locally

Has a main square (Piazza) with a lively atmosphere, with a selection of waterfront restaurants

The Piazza offers live music for entertainment in the evenings among a choice of restaurants and bars

Marzamemi

Crystal clear waters and white sand with a quirky yet trendy town, clearly one of Sicily's best-kept coastal secrets

Boutique shops are a walk along the streets from the Marina to the Piazza

Plenty of restaurants offering good food, during the day the Piazza has a unique kind of lazy vibe, it's so laid back and peaceful.

At night the Piazza comes to life! packed with locals and tourists. There are lanterns that alight the streets whilst the restaurants get ready for outside dining, simply picture perfect.

The home-made Granita is delicious with many flavors to choose from

Bike and Scooter hire is easily accessible

If you have water sports on your yacht, here is a good place to enjoy them

Syracuse

The largest city of the ancient world, dating back to the 8th century BC.

A brief stroll from the marina, you can soon be at the Doric Temple of Apollo.

Lively food markets are open every morning excluding Sunday, you can hear the music playing. Sample exquisite Sicilian delights, try before you buy!

Sample the tasty breads with oils, variety of tomato pastes, cheeses and cured meats, cannoli are a few to name as too many to mention

The Medieval streets and Piazza Duomo are aligned with shops and restaurants

The city is filled with culture and history, with temples, Greek outdoor theatres, museums and other tourist attractions.

Marina di Riposto lays at the bottom of the eponymous volcanic mountain.

Easy access for day trips, such as Mount Etna, Giardini Naxos, Botanical Gardens, Gorges, helicopter rides and shopping.

Savoca, where some of the Godfather movie was filmed, enjoy a drink at Bar Vitelli, stunning panoramic views

Capuchin Monastery, there are around 32 ancient mummies of monks and dignitaries dating back as early as the 17th Century

A fantastic golf course

Catania is close by, for plenty of shopping, large shopping centers

Taormina

The panoramic bay of Taormina is just delightful and sits just below the city, where there is the ancient town of Castlemola.

Isola Bella has one of the prettiest beaches, from a nature reserve, stunning and picturesque

A shoppers paradise, with plentiful bars and restaurants offering fantastic food.

Easy access to go exploring and see the many sights. Culinary tours are popular from here.
